RESERVED SEAT TICKETS FOR THE 2017 NCAA® MEN'S COLLEGE WORLD SERIES® GO ON SALE THIS SATURDAY AT 10 A.M. (CT)

INDIANAPOLIS – Reserved seat tickets for the 2017 NCAA Men's College World Series (CWS™) will be available for sale this Saturday, April 15 at 10 a.m. Central time. The sale will be open to the general public at NCAA.com/CWSTickets or by calling 866-208-0048. Tickets for fans requiring Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) accessible seating also will be available using these same options.

The number of available tickets is limited, and some games are expected to sell out quickly. Games 1-4 and CWS Finals Games 1 and 2 have sold out in previous years. Fans will have the opportunity to purchase up to six tickets for each game. Only those games that are guaranteed to be played will be sold through the advance sale. Tickets for "if necessary" games will be sold on their respective game days at the TD Ameritrade Park Omaha box office.

To purchase tickets through the advance sale for the CWS, which runs from June 17-27/28, a valid credit card will be required. Once purchased, tickets will be delivered electronically on or around April 25. The digital tickets are fully transferrable and can be listed on the NCAA Ticket Exchange™, a fan-to-fan marketplace.

Ticket prices for reserved seat tickets at TD Ameritrade Park Omaha are tiered by game and according to seat location. Reserved seat tickets range from $32-41. Flexible pricing may be implemented for day-of-game sales. Ticket prices will never be lower than the advance sale price, but may increase. Fans may purchase tickets in advance online to lock in the lowest price.
